

HAMPTON UNIVERSITY School of Business

CRITICAL THINKING, STRATEGY, CHESS ANALYSIS, & NEGOTIATIONS DIMENSION

Goal: "To develop a student who can think long and hard about solutions to difficult problems in unstructured environments. To produce a student whose thinking competes with anyone's, a MBA student who can think through anything, and a Hampton University Business graduate who can have impact, ... anywhere."

Five-Year MBA Program

Objective

Flexibility

Internships

Retention

Admission Requirements

Contact Us

Program Dimensions

Business Administration

Engineering

Global Outlook

Critical Thinking

School of Business

Academics Home

HU Homepage

Credits Earned	Objective	Event	Year
3 credit hrs	Critical Thinking and Analysis	VISTEON "See the Possibilities" First Year Chess Championship	1st year
	↓	Chess Analysis Training
3 credit hrs	Negotiations and Strategic Thinking	MBA 5th year ACCENTURE School of Business Chess Championship	4th year
6 total credit hrs		Kendo Martial Arts Training

Ms. Melanie Edwards Kendo Trainer
MBA Class 2004

Copyright © 2004 Hampton University. This site and all content, pictures, and information contained within are property of Hampton University. No part of this site may be reproduced without expressed consent of Hampton University's administration and/or governing body. This page developed and maintained by webmaster@hamptonu.edu | Last Edited: April 20, 2006